ADDRESS ON "JAPAN."

Prof. J. C. Monaghan Speaks at Gonzaga College Hall.

Prof. J. C. Monaghan delivered an address before a large audience at a meeting last evening in Gonzaga Hall for the benefit of the Japanese missionaries of the country. Father Ferrand of the order of French missionaries, made a brief speech prior to the lecture, explaining the object of the work, and making an appeal for liberal support. In the course of his address Mr. Monaghan said: "The Japanese are said to be mere imitators. Nothing could be further from the fact. They do imitate. They study, and woods direct from manufacturers. Also a study hard and faithfully. They borrow the best of others. Three words, according to their own estimate of themselves express the race's or empire's genius. They adopt, adapt and become adept. This has been their history from the hour they took Buddnism from the Chinese, engrafting its mot otheism upon the polytheism of Shintoism. The speaker began by telling a story of a Greek woman who, when sick and wasting away, was told by a beautiful woman met one day in the mountains that there was only one power on earth that could heal her. "He who was then walking the paths of pain on the way to Calvary, in Galilee. The woman went up and after many perilous days reached the hill of the cross with the cavalcade of the crucifixion. A drop of the blood and water out of the Savior's side, when He was pierced by the cen-

The speaker applied this story to Japan. "She needs, she desires," he said, "the healing water and the blood of Christ. These good men—the missionaries—have gone thither to give it to her. About the Japanese as about the Chinese we have long been in error. We have regarded them as only recently emerging from barbarism, and when, as a matter of fact, they have had a civilization and culture that reaches periods far more remote than are reached by European records. Their culture was exceedingly high. They had the printing press and gunpowder before the birth of Christ. True they did not use the latter in the civilized way in which we use it. They put it to the pastimes of children. They made it up into fire or powder crackers and fireworks. more civilized westerners put it behind bails of iron or shells of steel and blew neighbors and others to pieces.

"It was so with their literature, their laws, their industries, etc. The oath of the mikado, or part of it, reads that he will send experts abroad to study others, that the best of what is brought back, at least the parts suitable to his own people, he win adopt and put into use or practice.

"The Japanese feel for us a filial affection. They regard us as their friends and liberators. They are keen logicians. Let us tell them truthfully why we do not them in the San Francisco schools and they will help us to solve the knotty problem.
"There is no danger of war. The real danger is different—it is industrial, com-mercal. A wonderfully skillful fingered people, working for a pittance, living on rice, they will be able to beat us not only in the markets of the east, but in our own and in those of the rest of the world. This is the real and the imminent danger. Of this nobody who knows the race has any doubt. "The Japanese want the Christian religion; they want oriental philosophy, Greek art, modern science. Can you blame them?" In conclusion the speaker said: "Japan's symbol is the rising sun-enlightenment; what she and China seeks is peace, truth and justice.

ITS THEORIES AND TEACHINGS. Lecture on Christian Science by Rev. W. P. McKenzie.

Christian science, its theories and teachings, were explained yesterday afternoon at the New National Theater by Rev. W. P. McKenzie, a member of the Christian Science board of the First Church of Christ of Boston. The speaker was introduced by Brig. Gen. Amos S. Kimball, U. S. A., retired. "Healing has been accomplished where human love and human skill had given up hope," the speaker announced You have seen apparently incurable bad habits changed at once. Some teachers who are selfish and sincere argue that moral evil and physical pain are not only real-itles, but beneficent realities.

"Christian Science deals successfully with sin as well as sickness, healing both conditions of distress, overcoming moral evil with spiritual good. Men fall into sin because they seek for good from a wrong basis. Christian Science shows that what is good comes from God primarily and that men

Address at Y. M. C. A. Meeting for Men.

Edmond W. Booth of Grand Rapids, Mich., delivered an address yesterday afternoon at the meeting for men at the Young Men's Christian Association building. His subject was "Every Inch a Man." Mr. Booth said that to be great, in the true sense of the word, three qualities are necessary. "Purity is the first essential," he explained. "A man must have self control over all he does in any struggle for supremacy. No better example may be found than that of the athlete. who must live a clean, wholesome life to be victorious in a physical contest Mental supremacy requires the same condition of living in order to keep the brain clear and healthy. "The second essential is decision, which is three-fourths of success. The man who never feels that he is right sufficiently to act with all the energy at his command will never accomplish anything.

"Sympathy is the third essential to the making of a man. He should enter into the joys and sorrows of his fellow men. Napoleon had no heart."

Fifty canary birds were burned to death at a fire in the house of Mrs. Kate-Moore, what unexpectedly yesterday morning at afternoon. There were fifty other birds in his home. 1325 21st street, in the the room when the fire started, but Mrs. in the sixty-fourth year of his age. He had Moore was able to rescue them. While she been ill of heart trouble for some was engaged in the work a boarded in the time, but his death is attributed to house went out and turned in an alarm an attack of apoplexy. He was born from box 192. The birds belonged to J. H. Carter, a boarder, and he places his loss at about $300, about $200 worth of his clothing having been destroyed.

A defective flue was the cause of the fire, and the building was damaged to the amount of about $600. Mrs. Carter lost about $75 worth of clothing, and her furnished. ture was also damaged. Trouble more serious than the fire came near being caused at 7th and F streets. The water tower slid against an electric light pole and broke it off near the sidewalk. WORK BY CLUB WOMEN.

Address by Rev. Alexander Kent of People's Church.

Rev. Alexander Kent, of the People Church, preached the sermon yesterday morning at Pythian Temple, his subject being "The great work being done by the club women of our country." "What the women of this country really want they are likely to get," the speaker said. "What they set out earnestly to do they are pretty certain to accomplish. It is worth while, therefore, to keep an eye Ohio and five brothers, one of whom is is worth while, therefore, to keep an eye Mr. John S. Moodey, an old and respected on them and see what they are after and clerk in the office of the military secretary, what they are doing to further their aims. Recently quite a little light has been thrown on this subject by the publication of a series of articles.

"The General Federation of Women's Clubs now contains, we are told, 5,000 clubs, with a membership of 800,000 women. Clearly such an organization must be a great power in the life of the nation. Through its pure food committee it has accomplished much. Even the unbelieving in the value of women's work in public affairs have had to admit that the work of the federation in this field has been o potent influence in securing the passage of pure food bills.

"Women's clubs are becoming a mighty factor in the civilization of the country, and are creating an army of builders which will not only be a potent force in the present generation, but will transmit to the next vigor and strength never before given by any race of women to their inheritors."

Asks for Reduction in Rank. Although the annual salary of a driver in the District fire department is $70 more than that of a fireman in class 2, six drivers have asked to be reduced to the latter rank within the last two months. These requests are said to be becoming so common that the Commissioners are making inquiries in regard to it. Chief Belt of the fire department says the life and work of a driver is a pleasant one and not any more thrilling or exciting than the ordinary fire-fighter, and that he is at a loss to explain the recent action on the part of the drivers. Mr. W. B. Handy of truck company No. 4 man who has been recognized as a careful driver, has been obliged to ask for a reduction because of an accident several months ago which resulted in a fracture of the bones of both hands. He, it is said, relinquished the position with regret. Another driver who asked to be reduced said the horses were too big and heavy for him to handle; another said the work was too hard.
